Prayer:

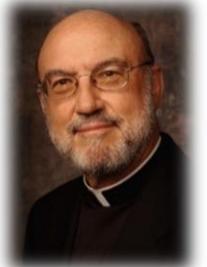

Responding to the Word of God in Creation

February 17 – 18, 2017

The aim of this workshop is to develop a deeper understanding of the dynamics of personal prayer in order to improve the quality of our own prayer. Special emphasis will be placed on prayer as responding to the word of God in creation. Pope Francis in his encyclical Laudato Si reminds us that “The creation accounts in the book of Genesis suggest that human life is grounded in three fundamental and closely intertwined relationships: with God, with our neighbor and with earth itself.” Texts for prayer and reflection will be taken from Scripture, Laudato Si, Thomas Merton and Ignatius Loyola. Fr. Hauser’s book, In His Spirit (Dynamic Catholic Institute--$3; Paulist Press--$10) will provide background for discussion.

Father Richard J. Hauser, SJ, S.T.L., Ph. D., has served as chair of the Department of Theology, director of the Graduate Programs in Christian Spirituality and rector of the Jesuit Community at Creighton University in Omaha. He is currently professor emeritus of theology, assistant to the president for mission and associate director of the Master’s Program in Christian Spirituality. His books include, Moving in the Spirit: Becoming a Contemplative in Action (Paulist Press); and Finding God in Troubled Times (Loyola Press). He also published numerous articles on theology and spirituality.
